Those who are in the habit of turning over the leaves of Kemble's Codex Diplomaticus Dugdale's Monasticon Anglicanum and similar works, during their researches into the early monastic history and literature of England, cannot fail to lament the want of indexes for names of persons, which have been omitted in every work. It occurred to me therefore in the first instance to compile for my own use a comprehensive list of the Heads of Religious Houses in England and Wales during the Saxon period, intending at some future opportunity to prepare similar lists of the other dignitaries who occupy a place in these books. I found this when completed so useful, that in the hope of others who are engaged in kindred pursuits deriving some benefit from it, I here present it with a preliminary chronological list of nearly three hundred Religious Houses established in England and Wales previous to the Norman Conquest, at the same time interpolating among the names additional references to other sources, printed and manuscript, which...
