Excerpt: .consult or use some such model series as Greene s Graded Grammar Blanks, or Richardson s Graded Language Exercises. The ability to parse and analyze sentences is no guarantee of ability to successfully use language.--Hiram Hadley. Every school exercise, even the driest Arithmetic, may be a language exercise, if the class are always kept on the alert to notice (and correct when at its close corrections are called for) any and all errors in pronunciation or Grammar. If a pupil can give an answer in fewer or better terms than those used by a, class-mate, let him always be encouraged to do it. The habit of using correct language thus formed, in conversation and recitation, will lay the foundation for the higher work of composition.--B. G. Northrop. In addition to the number of exercises already given by which the teacher may profitably interest his class,...
