

Unfinished Business: Women Men Work Family

By Anne-Marie Slaughter

Random House Audio Publishing Group, United States, 2015. CD-Audio. Book Condition: New. Unabridged. 152 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New. NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE WASHINGTON POST AND NPR An eye-opening call to action from someone who rethought the whole notion of having it all, Unfinished Business could change how many of us approach our most important business: living. People When Anne-Marie Slaughter accepted her dream job as the first female director of policy planning at the U.S. State Department in 2009, she was confident she could juggle the demands of her position in Washington, D.C., with the responsibilities of her family life in suburban New Jersey. Her husband and two young sons encouraged her to pursue the job; she had a tremendously supportive boss, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton; and she had been moving up on a high-profile career track since law school. But then life intervened. Parenting needs caused her to make a decision to leave the State Department and return to an academic career that gave her more time for her family. The reactions to her choice to leave Washington because of her kids led her to question the...
