In the Borthwick Peerage, where no patent could be found, the claimant was not the heir of line, but the heir-male of the body. The exclusion of the former from the title was never controverted, and the question was argued upon the assumption that the Barony was a male fief - the only point in dispute being, whether Mr Henry Borthwick had proved his pedigree, and this having been done, it was, 8th April 1762, adjudged that the Petitioner hath a right to the title, honour, and dignity of Lord Borthwick, as heir-male of the body of the first Lord Borthwick.
