The following series of questions by Count Sollohub of Russia, to which reference has already been made in the foregoing circular, embodies a profound philosophical study. Doubtless, there are points and leanings in the questions which will not carry all votes; but they are the production of a vigorous and enlightened mind; are highly suggestive; and will furnish abundant food for thought to those who contemplate a participation in the labors of the Congress. Questions Proposed In View Of The Approaching International Penitentiary Congress. 1. Do you consider it the aim of the Congress to secure, among civilized nations, a unanimous judgment on the most desirable legislative and administrative plan for the general management of prisons? 2. To avoid the loss of precious time, do you not think it desirable that the Congress engage neither in abstract discussions nor in studies relating to...
