Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Career of a Cobbler: The Life Story of William Carey A chattering monkey or two frisked overhead in the palm trees which skirted the village market-place, deserted now that the sun was setting. But to your eyes and mine the objects of conspicuous interest would have been two turbans, like gaudy tulips of gold and scarlet, nodding in the slow, unhurried conversation of the East, as their owners sat at the edge of the bazaar facing the sunset. Now, concerning the white sahib, it is to be admitted that he died full of good works, agreed Chunder Singh with complacent indifference. You must indeed admit it, said he of the golden-yellow turban, although his death was as nothing compared to his life. I that speak unto you have made inquiries, and surely no hero in all India, no god in all our sacred books performed such deeds as his.
