MIL BESOS Y CIEN MÁS

Debolsillo, 2015. soft. Book Condition: New. Placer, erotismo e intriga se dan cita en una novela que recoge uno de los romances históricos más sensuales de todos los tiempos, el de la bella Claudia, esposa de un rudo oficial destinado a las Galias, y el joven poeta Catulo. Roma, siglo I a. C.: la hermosa Claudia languidece en la capital del Imperio. Casada con el oficial Quinto Metello, un hombre rudo y mayor que ella, sufre también las presiones de su ambicioso hermano Publio, con quien mantiene una ambigua y compleja relación. El destino hace que Claudia conozca a Catulo, un joven veronés. Él es un poeta sensible que se siente irresistiblemente atraído por la patricia y la seduce no solo con las caricias más osadas sino también con sus versos. Adorada como una musa y amada con extraordinaria delicadeza y sensualidad, Claudia aprende a disfrutar de su cuerpo, dejándose llevar por una pasión y un juego amatorio que rompe todas las reglas. Porque Roma es una ciudad implacable que tolera los excesos sexuales y las orgías desatadas, pero que desconfía de las historias de amor. Y Catulo, bajo la apariencia de amante entregado, esconde también a un hombre posesivo, capaz de pasar de los besos más ardientes a unos celos intensos y peligrosos. Una historia de amor marcada por un sensual erotismo y unos celos apasionados, que pasó a la historia en forma de unos versos sublimes.
